RFI 9461 (I-4)

A-251, 834, 624, 959

1. On 23 November 1950, Confidential Informant 13-107-P was interviewed. Informant, who is well acquainted with the membership and activities of the Partido del Pueblo (People's Party - Communist Party of Panama) stated, in substance:

DIXON is an active member of the Party; however, he does not attend Party meetings regularly.

At present, SUBJECT is a member of the Syndicate of Electrical Workers, Colon, Republic of Panama. At one meeting of this organization, SUBJECT made statements indicating opposition to the democratic form of government. He has definite leftist tendencies. His activities with the Partido del Pueblo are confined to purchasing the Party organ, "El Patriota" (The Patriot), paying monthly dues of one dollar ($1.00), receiving the Daily Worker (Communist Party organ published in the United States), association with Feliciano LARA (Secretary General of the People's Party in Colon Province, Republic of Panama), and acting as a labor agitator. He is an intimate friend of Angel GOMEZ, expelled People's Party member, and is greatly influenced by him. (B-2)

2. On 7 December 1950, Confidential Informant 13-69-P was interviewed concerning DIXON. Informant, who is well acquainted with the Indian and West Indian elements of Colon, Republic of Panama, stated, substantially:

SUBJECT is a Panamanian Indian (Cholo), born on 20 November 1926, in Bocas del Toro, Province of Chiriqui, Republic of Panama. He is the bearer of Panamanian Cedula No. 11-13490. He has a sixth-grade education and is now employed by Compania Panamena de Fuerza y Luz (Panama Power and Light Company). He is married to Lea Dickson and they reside at 5087 Herrerez Avenue and 6th Street, Colon, R. P. I do not know whether they have any children or not. (B-3)

SUBJECT is a prominent member of the Syndicate of Electrical Workers, Colon, Republic of Panama. He has been seen, on numerous occasions, in association with Feliciano LARA, Secretary General of the Partido del Pueblo (Communist) and is, reportedly, a staunch supporter of that Party. SUBJECT, in his conversations, follows the "Party line" rather closely. (B-3)

3. On 8 December 1950, a review of certain Summaries of Information which were previously submitted concerning SUBJECT revealed the following information:

1. On 13 November 1950, Confidential Informant 13-107-P, who is well acquainted with the activities and membership of the Partido del Pueblo (People's Party - Communist Party of the Republic of Panama), was interviewed and stated in substance:

SUBJECT is an active member of the Partido del Pueblo of Colon, R. P. He now holds the positions of Secretary of Finance of the Provincial Directorate of the Partido Del Pueblo in Colon, R. P., and Secretary of Organization of the Popular Revolutionary Youth (Juventud Popular Revolucionaria - JPR), a People's Party sponsored organization.

SUBJECT was recently instructed by the Provincial Directorate of the Party of Colon to join the Federated Association of Abel Bravo College. He joined and was elected Secretary of Relations of the Association. At present, his activities are confined to spreading the Party's doctrine among students.

SUBJECT pays one dollar ($1.00) monthly dues to the Party, and buys the Party organ "El Patriota." He attends all meetings of the Directorate and of the cell. He sells the Party organ, collects information, and engages in all Party activities for which he is selected. (B-2)

2. On 20 November 1950, Confidential Informant 13-123-P stated in substance:

SUBJECT has been asking the students of Abel Bravo College to join the JPR.

THOMAS explained the aims of the organization and stated that it will hold meetings in the near future in Santiago de Veraguas, Republic of Panama. (B-2)

According to SUBJECT, the prime objective of this organization is to convey to the general public the unfavorable activities pursued by the present administration. (B-3)

1. On 13 November 1950, Confidential Informant 13-107-P, who is well acquainted with the activities and membership of the Partido del Pueblo (People's Party - Communist Party of the Republic of Panama), was interviewed and stated the following:

SUBJECT is the Secretary of Syndicate of the Party, and a cell leader. He has not been very active with the Party. Recently, SUBJECT was made responsible for the reorganization of a cell in Palmas Vellas, Province of Colon; however, his lack of initiative and ability have proved that he is not the desired individual for that job. Although he is a cell leader and occupied a position in the Provincial Directorate of the Party, he is not a leader. He is, rather, a poor follower. He buys "El Patriota," the Party organ, and pays fifty (50) cents monthly for Party dues. He has failed to hold meetings of his cell, and has failed to attend meetings of the Directorate. (B-2)

2. On 21 November 1950, a review of certain Summaries of Information, with numbers as indicated, which have been previously submitted concerning SUBJECT, disclosed the following:

SI 13-26: Secretary of Syndicate Affairs, PDP, Colon. To recruit members for the PDP from the Bakers, Chauffeurs, and Construction Workers Union.
 SI 13-487: Meeting of PDP at his home 23 July 50. Concerned the meetings of cells and improvement of the PDP communist propaganda dissemination.
 SI 13-574: Leader of Cell #8, PDP, Colon. (A-1)
